CUB TO GIVE FREE UTILITY-BILL 'CHECK-UPS' IN EVANSTON, SHOW PEOPLE HOW TO CUT THEIR PHONE, ENERGY COSTS

The Citizens Utility Board (CUB) will hold free "Utility Bill Checkups" and give out money-saving light bulbs to show Evanston residents how to save potentially hundreds of dollars on their telephone and energy bills at an event in September.

This free event is part of a campaign kicked off by CUB and Evanston Mayor Elizabeth Tisdahl in August to help residents cut their power bills through CUB Energy Saver, an online service that builds a money-saving plan for homes. Consumers should bring their telephone, natural gas, and electric bills for a free, one-on-one consultation with a CUB expert who will search for ways to lower their utility costs. The event is: 10 a.m. to noon AND 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 7 at The Levy Center, 300 Dodge Ave., Evanston

"As Evanston families wrestle with the economy and CUB fights to protect consumers in more than $1 billion in legal battles with Illinois utilities, people just want to save money," CUB Executive Director David Kolata said. "There are a lot of ways to trim your utility costs, and CUB knows all about them. You just can't find a free service like this anywhere else."

CUB has been saving consumers hundreds of dollars a year on their phone bills, and it has become one of Illinois' best resources for energy-efficiency programs, including CUB Energy Saver (www.CUBEnergySaver.com), which so far has been showing Illinois families how to cut their utility bills by an average of about $200 a year. It also is the nation's only online service that in effect pays consumers, through a rewards program, for reducing their ComEd bill.

Attendees should bring their phone, electric, and gas bills so CUB experts can look them over, search for any errors, and give cost-cutting tips. All participants will get a free CFL by showing up at the event (one per family).

For more information, call CUB's Consumer Hotline at 1-800-669-5556 or visit CUB's award-winning website, www.CitizensUtilityBoard.org.

Utility Bill Check-up at Levy Center

Tuesday September 7 10 a.m. – Noon AND 5– 7 pm

The Citizens Utility Board (CUB) Utility Bill Checkup

The Citizens Utility Board (CUB) will analyze your phone, electric, and gas bills, give you money-saving tips, and tell you about a free service, www.CUBenergysaver.com, that could show you how to slash your household energy costs by $200 a year.

Come in for a utility bill checkup and you will get a free Compact Fluorescent Light bulb (CFL) from CUB!

These clinics have been showing people how to cut their phone bills by hundreds of dollars a year. All ages are invited! While walk-ins are welcome, we ask that people call the Levy Center at 847/448-8250 ahead of time to confirm the approximate time they plan to attend the event.

Evanston City Council Committee to Discuss Changes in Water/Sewer Rates

The City Council's Administration and Public Works Committee will continue discussing proposed changes to water and sewer rates at its meeting on Monday, September 27, 2010. This comes after several budget and capital discussions with the City Council over the past few months on the next steps on how to raise additional revenue for these funds. All of the proposed rate changes would take effect on January 1, 2011.

"A New Height of Political Arrogance" Doherty Blasts Senate Appointment

Alderman Brian Doherty, republican candidate for state senate in the 10th District, blasted his democratic opponent John Mulroe's recent appointment to the vacant 10th district senate seat as "a new height in political arrogance."

On August 7th, a handful of democratic committeemen appointed Mulroe to serve out the final months of Sen. James DeLeo's term just 81 days before the November 2nd election. The picture that has developed from this episode is being seen as an attempt by political insiders to manipulate the election process, strikingly familiar to the Blagojevich-Burris fiasco.

Doherty went on to say, "The timing of this appointment is a slap in the face to voters. The senate president and the Chicago ward bosses are desperate to hang on to a senate seat they feel slipping from their hands so they propped up their candidate. I'm also sure my opponent is very pleased to be collecting another government paycheck, making him a quadruple-dipper. This is a new height of political arrogance."

The politics behind this appointment are quite glaring when the details are examined more closely. Here is what the appointment means for taxpayers:

Win or lose, the senate replacement will only work six (6) days in Springfield during veto session. All six days fall after the November 2nd election.

The senate replacement will be paid nearly $30,000 in salary including a per diem for this brief period of service; roughly $5,000 per veto session day.

The senate appointment puts Mulroe on four different government payrolls:

1. Cook County (1996 - present)
2. City of Chicago (1994 - present)
3. Chicago Park District (1997 - present)
4. State of Illinois (August 7, 2010 - present)

(Source: Chicago Sun-Times 2010 Candidate Questionnaire)

Though the political spin from the Mulroe camp has already begun in attempt to break away from his back-room deal and patronage jobs, Doherty feels this clearly illustrates the strong differences between the two candidates. "While my opponent tries to spin this, it rings very hollow when you account for no legislative work before the election and the fact that the voters had no say. My campaign is about ending these kinds of insider deals. This style of politics is what put our state into a financial disaster and now my opponent wholeheartedly embraces it. I will bring an independent mindset and straight-forward honest dialogue to Springfield," concluded Doherty.

About Brian Doherty - As Alderman of Chicago's 41st Ward, Brian Doherty has distinguished himself as an independently minded, fiscal conservative. Recognized by the Chicago Tribune for "presiding ably over his ward" and by the Sun-Times for acting "independently," Brian has been a consistent advocate for more efficient, less intrusive government. ## Join the Zumba® Fitness Craze!

Lincolnwood Parks and Recreation Department offers four fall session classes

The Lincolnwood Parks and Recreation Department is infusing party fun into fitness this Fall with Zumba® Fitness Classes.

Zumba disguises the “work” from “working out” by combining amazing, irresistible Latin and international music with dynamic, yet simple dance exercise moves, using an intermittent training format.

While Zumba embraces all the fundamental principles of fitness, the key to Zumba’s success is how the music and movement motivate the body to efficiently burn calories, effectively tone all muscle groups, incorporate full range of motion, and improve the cardiovascular system. Fun and music are the two special motivational ingredients. Utilizing the natural beat, tempo, and music transitions, the Zumba dances seamlessly flow from one toning, strengthening, or cardio move into the next. Participants are constantly engaged and entertained with the variety of rhythms including salsa, merengue, samba, belly dancing, cumbia, flamenco, reggaeton, and more! Zumba breaks away from the typical aerobic class format and uses the passion of the music as it was meant to be experienced. Even those who believe they have “two left feet” are successful in a Zumba class because of the natural flow of the simple steps that radiate through the body in synch with the music.

Zumba is recognized by the world’s leading fitness educators, including the Aerobic and Fitness Association of America, the American Council on Exercise, and CanFitPro, a Canadian national fitness accreditation organization. With sanctioned training programs in countries like China, Japan, Taiwan, Mexico, the United Kingdom, Canada, and Venezuela, Zumba is taking the world by storm.

Two free Zumba demonstration classes will be held at the Lincolnwood Community Center on Tuesday, August 31 at 10:15 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Registration is currently underway for session one fall classes. For more information, please contact the Lincolnwood Parks and Recreation Department at (847) 677-9740 or visit the department’s website at www.lincolnwoodil.org, where online registration is available.

CELEBRATE CJE DINNER AND PROGRAM TO FEATURE GRAMMY AWARD WINNING SINGER NANCY WILSON

CJE SeniorLife benefit takes place Wednesday, October 13, at Swissôtel Chicago

CJE SeniorLife Board members, staff and volunteers are making a difference daily in the lives of more than 18,000 older adults and their families in the Chicago area. On Wednesday evening, Oct. 13, CJE will hold its fifth fundraising benefit, Celebrate CJE, to showcase the organization’s rich history and wide-range of innovative, healthy living services and programs, at Swissôtel Chicago, 323 E. Wacker Dr.

Nancy Wilson, a three-time Grammy Award winning singer with more than 70 albums, will headline the evening program with a special one-time performance. Known for her vast repertoire of pop style ballads, jazz, blues, gospel and show tunes, Wilson has been entertaining audiences worldwide for more than 50 years. Her debut single, “Guess Who I Saw Today,” was so successful that between April of 1960 and July of 1962, Capitol Records released five Nancy Wilson albums. In 1963, “Tell Me the Truth” became her first truly major hit, leading up to her performance at the Coconut Grove in 1964 – the turning point of her career garnering critical acclaim from coast to coast. Wilson has been honored with a Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, a Lifetime Achievement Award from the NAACP in Chicago, and Oprah Winfrey’s Legends Award.

Reservations for Celebrate CJE can be made online at www.cje.net or by calling 773/508-1025.

“We have received an overwhelmingly positive response from those who attended and supported our first four events,” said Vicki Pines, who is co-chair of the Celebrate CJE dinner and program along with Steven Rogin. “On the occasion of our fifth anniversary of Celebrate CJE, we look forward to once again sharing a festive and informative evening with family, friends and the community. Even in this difficult economy, a successful fundraising event is critical to ensure the health and well-being of our older community members who need CJE’s services more than ever.”

CJE SeniorLife is an innovative provider of community-based and residential programs throughout the Chicago area. Over the past 38-years, CJE’s wide range of services has grown to include assisted living, counseling and care management, long-term skilled nursing, Alzheimer’s care, home health, wellness programs and much more. CJE is a partner in serving the community, supported by the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation. ## "Godspell"

Provision Theatre Company
1001 West Roosevelt St, Chicago, IL

Reviewed by Richard Allen Eisenhardt

"Godspell" is opening Provision Theatre's 2010-2011 season. Stephen Schwartz has done the lyrics and music for the show that has a book by Michael Tebelak and is based on The Gospel According to St. Matthew. The show ran 2,631 performances off-Broadway and 1,128 in London back in 1971.

If audiences are expecting a show such as "Jesus Christ Superstar" or "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," you'll be very disappointed. This is a small scale musical based on the Bible.

I support and like the mission of the Provision Theatre Company but I must admit I was disappointed with this production.

I was very impressed with Justin Berkobien's performance as John the Baptist and also Syler Thomas as Jesus. The ensemble cast I found a little uneven although not all were in that group as some spoke and sang better than others. Tim Gregory is a first rate director but this is not of his better ones.

Tim Gregory, the show's artistic director, has set the show in a country barn or warehouse where the characters seek refuge from a storm outside. In the original back in 1971 a group of students meet in a school playground to tell the story of the last days of Jesus' life in song and story.

My favorite songs in the musical were "Day by Day," "Save the People" and "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord."

Provision is a small equity theatre that does normally beautiful work on a limited budget. Their production of "The Hiding Place" was exceptional as was "Cotton Patch Gospel," "Smoke on the Mountain" and several other shows in the past.

Their next production will be a sequel to "Smoke on the Mountain."

With the exception of Berkobien who is an equity actor who has done shows for Marriott, Noble Fool, Drury Lane Water Tower and Oakbrook, the rest of the cast is professional but non-equity.

Support this wonderful theatre company and don't let one production discourage you. Some will love the production while others like me will have reservations. The show runs two hours and ten minutes with intermission.

"Godspell" runs through September 26th. For performance days, show times and reservations call 866-811-4111. Tickets are $25 to $28. There is plenty of free parking.

Austrian Mixed Chorus

The Austrian Mixed Chorus of Chicago was founded in 1980 by Austrian-Americans for the purpose of keeping alive the Austrian folk songs as they are sung in the various provinces of their homeland. In addition to the folk songs, the Chorus presents light classical music, especially Viennese, German "Lieder" as well as a selection of songs in English. The traditional folk songs of Austria are sung in regional dialects and often include Yodlers. David Crane is the long-time director of the Austrian Mixed Chorus and is well known in Austrian and German-American circles.

For a number of years now, Helmut Groetzel has been the President of the Chorus. Maria Bappert serves as 1st Vice President, and Elfriede Huegel is 2nd Vice President. Trudy Nika is the Secretary, and Hannelore Merritt serves as Treasurer. In addition, Loretta Fleischmann is Program Chairperson, Evelyn Schell is Membership Chairperson, and Anni Reinberger heads up the Music Committee.

The Austrian Mixed Chorus will again participate in the Von Steuben Parade on September 11 and will share a float with the American Friends of Austria. After a summer recess, the Chorus has started regular rehearsals again to prepare for their Annual Fall Concert which will take place on Sunday, November 7 at the Avalon Banquets Hall in Elk Grove Village. This year's concert will have the theme of "Viennese Songs and Viennese Wine," and will also feature Tenor George V. Humphrey as soloist, who will return to Chicago for this occasion after a successful year singing in a number of opera houses in Europe.

The Austrian Mixed Chorus welcomes new singers, men and women, in all voice ranges. No audition is required. The rehearsals take place Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Catholic Kolping Center, 5826 N. Elston Avenue, in Chicago. ## General Friedrich Wilhelm Von Steuben German-American Hero

General Friedrich Wilhelm Ludolf Gerhard Augustin Von Steuben was born in Magdeburg, Germany on September 17, 1730.

Von Steuben's military career began at an early age, when he entered the Prussian army and served with Distinction in the Seven Year's War. He later became the aid of Frederick the Great of Prussia, who was recognized as the military genius of his time. Von Steuben became expert in the drilling and training of troops. Because of this exceptional ability, Benjamin Franklin and Count St. Germain, French Minister of War persuaded Von Steuben to volunteer his military expertise to the American Revolutionists.

Von Steuben sailed for America and arrived at Portsmouth, NH in 1778 to aid the young nation in its fight for independence. He offered his services to General Washington without rank or pay, arriving at Valley Forge in the late winter of 1777-78.

He found the soldiers in deplorable condition, without uniforms, weapons or food. Appointed by Congress to be inspector General of the Army, Von Steuben set about training the unorganized band of ragged soldiers. He infused in them a sense of discipline and converted them into an excellent fighting force, training them to bear arms, march, form columns and to execute maneuvers with precision. He gave confidence to the officers and men, enabling them to continue on to victory at Yorktown.

As "Drill Instructor" of the Continental Army, Von Steuben wrote "Regulations of the Order and Discipline of the Troops of the United States." Although his Manual has been modified, it still remains in the basic guide for the discipline and drill of the Army.

On June 28, 1778, Von Steuben's training was put to test when the American troops encountered the British Army near Monmouth Courthouse in the town of Freehold, Monmouth County, New Jersey. What early threatened to become a disastrous defeat for the Colonial forces was turned into a glorious victory by General Von Steuben. The retreating troops of General Lee were brought to a halt by Von Steuben and reformed under heavy fire. The retreating men knew how to conduct themselves and wheeled into line with the precision of veterans. What seemed to be a certain defeat turned into a patriot victory and a turning point in the war. This battle was followed by victories in Stony Point, Yorktown and other places.

Steuben was remarkable for the generosity and fineness of his nature, spending his entire income, beyond what was essential to his own simple needs, in purchasing clothing and rations for his men. In recognition of his services Congress granted him an annuity and New York State presented him with a large tract of land. He became an American citizen and lived in New York until his death in 1794. He was laid to rest in a hero's grave on his estate in Steuben County where the inscription on a bronze plaque sums up the contribution that he had made to the new nation "Indispensable to the Achievement of American Independence."

Steuben's military services in America are likewise very adequately indicated in General John McCauley Palmer's biography on Steuben by his most praiseworthy statement:

"...in the course of my researches I was soon convinced that the military services of two men, and two men only, can be regarded as indispensable to achievement of American independence. These two men were Washington and Steuben. When I say that their military services were indispensable, I mean that each of them contributed something essential to final victory, that could not have been contributed by any other man in the American Army."

Local Symphony Kicks Off Season at Wright

Skilled musicians are welcome to audition for the Northwest Chicago Symphony at 7 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 7, as the symphony kicks off its 31st season at Wilbur Wright College, 4300 N. Narragansett Ave. This season brings a mix of the more serious -- such as Lincoln's Portrait and former WLS-TV anchorman Joel Daly reciting the Gettysburg address -- with the light and witty "Hary Janos" fairy tale about the hero who conquered Napoleon's armies. The popular Christmas program will return.

Rehearsals continue every Tuesday at 7 p.m. For further information call (773) 481-8863 or visit the orchestra's website NWCSO.org.

Personal Tours Available at Wright

Wilbur Wright College is offering personally guided tours of the campus for prospective students to gain insight into the Wright student experience. Tours are offered every Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. and Thursday at 11:00 a.m. on a sign-up basis.

One of Wright's Student Ambassadors will conduct the tour of Wright's buildings, labs, library and athletic facility. The guide is also prepared to answer questions about the Wright student experience.

To sign up for a tour, call (773) 481-8225, ext. 2 or send an e-mail to wn\_e-advicing@ccc.edu.

Guerin Prep Opens New School Year

"Under Construction"

Construction fences will greet the students of Guerin College Preparatory High School when schools open for the 2010-2011 year as various improvements are under way, including the renovation of the school's competition gymnasium in the Holy Cross building on Guerin Prep's 22-acre campus.

The school year begins Aug. 23 with approximately 540 students, including 127 freshmen and 15 transfer students. The Mass of the Holy Spirit starts the day, an all-school picnic will bring the first day to a close.

Also, the school welcomes its first Guerin Prep graduate, Vince Nardiello, to the faculty. Vince, a recent graduate of Dominican University with a B.A. in history, will teach social science. He has been a member of the Guerin Prep football coaching staff since he graduated from Guerin Prep in 2006.

Also on Monday, Guerin Prep will begin to provide its own bus service for students living in the western suburbs. For the coming semester the bus will pick up at the River Grove Metra Station, St. Vincent Ferrer in River Forest and Sacred Heart School in Melrose Park. Each semester the route will be determined by the needs of Guerin Prep families.

"Under Construction"

Following the sale of four acres of property earlier this year, Guerin Prep has sought to implement a long-range plan adopted by its board of directors in 2007. The master plan calls for the enhancement and expansion of the four core components of Guerin Prep's mission-- academics, athletics, arts and financial aid, and since the sale Guerin Prep already has acted on two of these areas.

A tuition freeze for the 2010-2011 school year was announced at the time of the sale, thus offering every Guerin Prep family tuition assistance for the coming school year.

The second project was the renovation of the girls' softball field and the surrounding fence and gate areas, completed in time for the spring softball season.

Since then, the school has also upgraded the football and baseball fields and has installed a safety fence for the football stadium field area. Parking lot repair, resurfacing and restriping is also being completed in time for the start of the school year.

Inside the building, new science lab desk tops and chairs have been installed and new risers have been added to a new chorus room. A students' commons study area is in the final stages of development. In addition, new tables have been ordered for the school cafeteria.

Next on the agenda are major improvements in the Holy Cross building, including refurbishing of the gym, a new fitness center and a new concessions and kitchen area.

Eventually, a new entry way will be created leading into the gymnasium.

"We want to move from being a good school to a great school," explained Principal Tony Tinerella in addressing the faculty and staff about the improvements during faculty meetings this week. "This is a great start."

Search for a New President

Guerin Prep is currently searching for a new president for the school, following the retirement of Terry Malik this June. Malik served as president since March 2008. A search committee formed by the board of directors will begin interviewing candidates for the position Aug. 30.

While the search committee does its work, the Board of Directors has named the three remaining members of the school's administration as acting co-presidents-- Kevin Miller, vice president for financial affairs, Anthony Tinerella, principal, and Sister Dawn Tomaszewski, vice president for advancement.

Community Comes Together to Support NU Wildcats

Northwestern University's Athletic Department and the City of Evanston recently announced plans for the inaugural "Evanston Day" at Ryan Field, scheduled for Saturday, September 25, when the Wildcats meet defending Mid-American Conference champion Central Michigan on the gridiron.

In anticipation of the event, a pep rally encouraging the community to "Paint Evanston Purple," will be held Thursday, September 23, in front of the Evanston Rotary International Building, 1560 Sherman Avenue, from 6 to 7 p.m.

"I am excited to live in a community with a Big Ten University and a stellar football program," Evanston Mayor Elizabeth Tisdahl said. "I am looking forward to Evanston residents coming out to show their support for the Wildcats on Evanston Day at Ryan Field. I encourage all residents to help us 'Paint Evanston Purple.' Go Cats!"

The pep rally, held outside the Rotary Building on Sherman Ave. between Davis Street and Grove Street, will be emceed by Northwestern football All-American and Evanston resident Mike Adamle. Mayor Tisdahl and NU President Morton Schapiro will be joined by Director of Athletics and Recreation Jim Phillips and Wildcat Head Football Coach Pat Fitzgerald.

Fans and residents attending the pep rally are encouraged to wear purple as select businesses will be offering promotions to individuals sporting the Northwestern-specific color. Northwestern t-shirts and Wildcat gear will be available for sale at a booth along Sherman Avenue.

"We are absolutely thrilled to host 'Evanston Day' at Ryan Field," Fitzgerald said. "As members of the Evanston community, our football family is focused on making a difference in our own backyard and we hope to do that by inviting Evanstonians to Ryan Field for this special day. We look forward to seeing a lot of purple in the stands on September 25th and at the Pep Rally in downtown Evanston on September 23rd."

Game Day festivities begin two hours before kickoff at Wildcat Alley, located adjacent to Ryan Field. The family-fun zone will offer a range of activities, including face painting, games, appearances by the marching band, drinks, food and much more.

After the game, attendees will be able to use their ticket stub to take advantage of the promotions being offered by select businesses.

Evanston residents can purchase a ticket to the Central Michigan game online at NUsports.com for half price ($17) with the promotion code "purple." Game time will be announced on NUsports.com on Monday, September 13.

Dog vs. Cat & Dog Wins!

By Bosley

Hello my furry friends, is everyone enjoying the summer? Well, I have certainly been a busy pooch! My Human has me meeting and greeting everyone at the new place; it's great to make some new friends but I think I am do for a vacation!

Speaking of which, I might just take one by myself, turns out that I got in trouble recently. I will only confess to you my friends that I am somewhat guilty; I did say somewhat. One of the cats, Tootsie, I am forced to live with was in the garbage can at home; curious (curiosity kills cats not dogs!) I went to investigate. Well, she was happily enjoying the leftovers from my Humans supper; there were some great bones in there so I thought I would share in the treasure! Unfortunately, that is when my Human came in and caught me! Of course the sneaky Tootsie was nowhere to be found and didn't share in the punishment. I was very angry at that cat, I know I am partly to blame, but it's her fault too!

So, I devised a woofing good plan! Now all of you must raise your paw and not confess to any Humans what I am about to tell you! Ready? Did you really raise your paw? So I thought, how can I get back at her, then the magic milkbone appeared over my head! I have to continually push the cats away from my favorite bed; well this time I invited Tootsie to join in the comfort! Yes, I know that is against the dog code, but remember I have a plan! As we cuddled (I know gross) I began to lick Tootsie; I normally wouldn't be caught dead doing such behavior with a cat, but desperate times call for desperate measures! Anyway, Tootsie has a very thick long coat, after spending so much time at my Human's Grooming Shop I know that by me licking the coat I would cause tangles to form. Now tangles aren't good for any animal, they hurt, but remember revenge is sweet! So, after degrading myself to the cat, I secretly snickered.

Later that evening my Human was petting Tootsie when she proclaimed, "Wow when did you get to be such a mess? You are coming with me tomorrow to the shop for a good grooming!" Yes, my Human grooms cats all the time at the shop; and yes, cats do need grooming, but some hate it more than others. Ahh sweet revenge, you see what Tootsie hates most in the world is grooming and the bath!

Well, I showed her, don't mess with the Poodle! Ok I know revenge isn't the good dog thing to do, but I am talking about a cat here; so I think I am still a good pup (and very clever one too!)
Play on, Bosley

In its 4th year, the market will run every Thursday through October 14 between the hours of 8am -1pm. The site will be the St. John's Lutheran Church parking lot, located at 4707 West Pratt Ave.

NEW this year, is the opportunity for community groups, to apply for a table once during the market to showcase an organization and share membership and volunteer opportunities with residents and neighbors. Also NEW this year is the opportunity for local artisans and the business community to apply once for a space for a small fee. (A Village Business license is required to sell products.)

With a 20 week season we hope to accommodate all who wish to participate.

Entertainment and theme days will be provided on certain days of the Market. Watch for more details. ## Village of Skokie Community Blood Drive Held at the Skokie Farmers' Market

The Skokie Health Department, in partnership with LifeSource, will hold a community blood drive at the September 12 and October 10, 2010 Skokie Farmers' Markets from 7:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. LifeSource's mobile van will be onsite at the market for donors to easily and conveniently donate blood. The goal for these drives is to collect at least 150 donations, and it can only be met with your help. Please consider donating blood to save a life. For each blood drive event, each donor will be put into a drawing to win a $25 gift certificate to restaurants in Downtown Skokie.

You are eligible to donate if you are 17 years old, weigh at least 110 pounds and are healthy. The Health Department especially encourages people with O-type blood to donate, as they are "universal donors" whose blood can be used with any other blood type. Each pint of blood donated can help up to three people, and you can donate once every 56 days. If you donate the maximum of six times a year, up to 18 people can benefit.

Blood donations in the Village of Skokie are at a ten year low, with just 323 pints donated from May to December, 2009. This is a 43% decrease from the same time period during 2008, and creates the potential for a regional shortage of blood.

For more information or to schedule a specific appointment time, contact the Skokie Health Department at 847/933-8252.

Vote Today for Chicagoland and Northwest Indiana's Favorite 'Secret' Place

What's Chicagoland and Northwest Indiana's favorite undiscovered public place? Is it a community garden, a neighborhood coffee shop, or an overlooked plaza? The people will decide from Aug. 9 to Sept. 10, 2010, when they vote online at PlacemakingChicago.com for their favorite of two dozen finalists in the "What Makes Your Place Great? Your Secret Corner of Chicagoland" photo and video contest.

To find the undiscovered places that make Chicagoland and Northwest Indiana great, the Metropolitan Planning Council (MPC) and Chicago Architecture Foundation (CAF) called on people to submit a photo or video and written description of their favorite public place in the region.

"We received a great response from people across the region, from Northwest Indiana to Naperville," said Karin Sommer, MPC project manager. "People really cherish their secret public spaces as part of the essential fabric of their lives and communities."

The public can view all 24 contest entries and vote on the "People's Choice" winner at PlacemakingChicago.com/places between now and Sept. 10. Voters are encouraged to review all of the fantastic entries, which showcase not only some of the region's secret gems, but also some truly beautiful and inspiring photography and videography.

A committee of Placemaking experts will choose three "Placemakers" winners, and all four winners will be announced Sept. 17.

Funding is Critical to Estate Planning

Chester M. Przybylo

Everyone knows that planning is part of estate planning. When Ted and Emily met with their attorney, they discussed their family's needs and the legacy they wanted to leave. Ted and Emily and the attorney created an estate plan designed to achieve their goals via a Revocable Living Trust as the way to get there. After the documents were prepared, they set up the appointment to sign or "execute" the Trust and other documents, including the Property Power of Attorney, the Health Care Power of Attorney, and a Pour Over Will. After that, they were done, right?

That's what Ted and Emily thought. But, when Ted died, Emily found out how wrong they were. A Trust only controls the assets tilted into it, otherwise known as "funding the Trust." When Ted passed away, it was discovered that the Trust was still unfunded. This meant some assets were held in joint tenancy and passed to the surviving joint tenant, Emily. While other assets passed by beneficiary designation. Ted had still more assets in his own name. Those assets had to go through probate, the public and sometimes difficult process by which title is passed from a person who has died, through intestacy if there is no Will, or, in Ted's case via his Pour Over Will to the Trust.

Funding is the process of transferring title of assets into your Trust. Emily learned that planning is not enough; funding is also critical to an estate plan. An unfunded trust is the equivalent of a treasure chest without any gold in it. As part of your estate plan, a good estate planning attorney will instruct you on what and how assets get transferred into your Trust, or may include funding in the fee. Ownership of most assets should be transferred into your Trust. Exceptions are:

Retirement accounts, such as IRAs, 401(k)s, 403(b)s, etc. Doing so would have negative income tax consequences. In some circumstances you may want to change the beneficiary designation of these accounts to your Trust.

Custodial accounts, such as UTMA and UGMA accounts.

Life insurance. However, sometimes it is advisable to put this in a special irrevocable Trust in order to reduce estate taxes.

Motor vehicles. Depending on the state, it may be better to leave these outside the Trust.

Checking account. Sometimes people want to leave a small amount in a checking account for day-to-day transactions, especially if they want to protect their privacy and not disclose the existence of the Trust.

Most lenders require you to remove your home from your Trust before refinancing. If this becomes necessary, your estate planning attorney can prepare a deed from your Trust to you as an individual. Sometimes this is necessary if the lender plans to bundle and sell your loan. If you remove the home from the Trust, remember you can and should put it back in the Trust immediately after the loan closes. Failure to do so may unnecessarily add probate expenses or may even disrupt the plan you so carefully put together.

As with most things, it's important to see things through to the finish. In Estate Planning, that means making sure your Trust is properly funded. Planning and funding are both necessary for your estate plan to achieve your goals.

Chester M. Przybylo has been elected to the Board of Governors of the prestigious American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys and has been engaged in the practice of law for the last 40 years. For more information or to attend an upcoming seminar, call (773) 631-2525.

The Adult Book Club will discuss The Passion of Artemisia by Susan Vreedland on Wednesday, August 25th at 6:30 p.m. at Chicago Public Library's Edgebrook Branch, 5331 W. Devon Avenue. This fictionalized biography of Artemisia Gentileschi is an intimate, detailed look at the life of one of the most notable female painters of all time. Copies of the book are available at the reference desk. For more information, please telephone 312.744.8313.

Please join the Edgebrook Sherlockians for a discussion of The Problem of Thor Bridge on September 1 at 6:30 p.m. Holmes is yet again confronted with money and power, in the guise of Neil Gibson, the "Gold King." Although his true identity has been the subject of much speculation, this American is fabulously rich, crude, stubborn, cold, and violent. Holmes must reach deep to solve the clue of the chipped stonework. Books containing the short story are available at the reference desk.

In celebration of Hispanic Heritage month the Edgebrook Branch will be hosting ARTeSCAPES by artist Lesley Martinez Etherly. The giclée exhibit is located on the second floor of the library and can be viewed from September 15th to October 15th. ARTeSCAPES is an exploration of space, time and found compositions; it is a documentation of paths taken, and a free for all with "creative leftovers." Follow the linear indentations left in a table after the hammering has stopped or the forgotten coffee stain in the crevice of the studio couch. The exhibiting titles include: Long Days Journey East, Don't Fly Far, Cascade, Advantageous, Ariola, and Simplify-fly.

Lesley Martinez Etherly's art exposes the beauty in the underestimated mark left by chance or the remnant of a creative process. An artist by instinct, her work has been exhibited at the West Chicago branch of Chicago Public Library, Columbia College, and Northeastern Illinois University to name a few. Lesley is currently pursuing a degree in Multidisciplinary Arts from Northeastern Illinois University. You can find more information about her work at www.wix.com/uteclub/martinez.

Joe Orsolini, a Certified Financial Planner and Certified College Planning Specialist, will lead a seminar titled, "Don't Pay the College Sticker Price!" on Saturday, September 18th at 2 p.m. The program will introduce the three key areas of opportunity to reduce the overall cost of a college education. Professional advice on strategies to maximize need-based financial aid eligibility, targeting the right colleges for merit-based financial aid, and exploiting tax-saving opportunities will be shared.

Barbara Roseman, a member of the Lyric Opera's dedicated and award-winning Education Corps will entertain and educate with highlights from Macbeth on Friday, September 24th at 11 a.m. Witches fly, ghosts appear, and fires burn unnatural green. The human and supernatural worlds collide as Macbeth and his Lady partner in "horrific" crimes seize the Scottish throne!
