SALSA, SWING & STEP TO THE BEAT AT THE 18TH ANNUAL CHICAGO SUMMERDANCE

Friday, June 27 – Sunday, September 14 in the Spirit of Music Garden in Grant Park

The largest annual outdoor live music and dancing series in the United States, Chicago SummerDance, returns for its 18th year – and Chicagoans who love to dance will flock to the Spirit of Music Garden as it blossoms into a unique multi-dimensional, urban dance space. Chicago SummerDance is FREE and takes place in Grant Park's Spirit of Music Garden (601 South Michigan Avenue) Friday and Saturday evenings, from 6 to 9:30 p.m. and Sunday afternoons from 4 to 7 p.m. between June 27 and September 14.

The Spirit of Music Garden in Grant Park will also serve as a venue for World Music Festival Chicago 2014 on its opening weekend, September 12–14. ## RTA Announces Ride Free Permit Expiration Date Extensions

Extensions Granted to Permits with June 30 and September 30 Expiration Dates

The Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) today announced that the expiration dates on the Ride Free Permits used by qualifying persons with disabilities and seniors will be extended to ensure there is no interruption in their use of transit.

Approximately 100,000 riders—30,000 persons with disabilities and 70,000 seniors—currently use Ride Free permits with expiration dates of June 30 or September 30, 2014. The RTA is required by law to issue these permits to individuals who have been approved by the State of Illinois Benefit Access Program (BAP), formerly known as Circuit Breaker. The Persons with Disability Ride Free permits currently expire on June 30; these cards will now be useable until September 30, 2014. The Senior Ride Free permits that expire on September 30 will now be useable until November 30, 2014.

“As the issuing agency, the RTA recently became aware that many permit holders need additional time to apply for the BAP program. Due to the large number of riders applying, additional time is required in order to process the applications,” said Leanne Redden, Acting Executive Director of the RTA. “To assure the remaining renewals are processed smoothly and that, most importantly, no qualified rider is unable to ride the transit system, we are extending the expiration dates of all of these permits by several months.”

Because it may take up to 4-6 weeks for eligibility to be approved through BAP, riders should not delay in submitting their eligibility application through the State of Illinois Benefit Access Program. Any rider who does not have a new card on its expiration date will be granted an extension from that date. Riders do not need to take any action to receive this extension as the smart cards will automatically be updated.

There are two ways to confirm eligibility through BAP:

1. From any computer or mobile device, visit the Illinois Department of Aging Benefit Access Program website at www.illinois.gov/aging and click on the “Benefit Access” tab.

- The State only allows applications online, not in writing or over the telephone

- The applicant must submit documentation online, which may require scanning documents to a computer to submit them online

2. If assistance is needed filling out the online form to confirm eligibility for the Illinois Benefit Access Program, an applicant may do one of the following:

- Call the Illinois Department on Aging at (800) 252-8966 to find a conveniently located center where staff can assist in filling the application or

- the City of Chicago’s six Regional Senior Centers Monday through Friday, between 8:30 AM and 3:30PM. Riders can call 311 to find the closest Regional Senior Center.

Phone For Legal Advice At No Cost

The Chicago Bar Association (CBA) Lawyer Referral Service hosts Call-A-Lawyer on the third Saturday of every month from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Volunteer attorneys will give free legal advice over the phone to Chicagoland residents who call (312) 554-2001.

COMMON SENSE

Drrrrrones!!

It used to be that if you saw a stop sign or a traffic light, you assumed that there probably was an accident at that intersection that prompted its installation.

Drones, because of the “fast-food” way in which we are living now, are potentially a big problem. We only hope that one doesn’t go “out-of-control” and hit a building, collide with an airplane, or bump into us. There have already been some small incidents, i.e., college kids peeping into dorm windows (boys will be boys), but let’s pray that the occasions of “mishaps” are few, far between and minor.

Motto: SLOW DOWN AND DO IT RIGHT!! (This subject will be continued)

SKOKIE THEATRE

NOTHING COMPARES TO THE THRILL OF LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

July Showcases An Interesting Bunch of Gals

By Wayne Mell – Managing Director

My big summer news is that Megon McDonough is coming to Skokie Theatre. She stars in Her Way: An Interesting Bunch of Gals on July 19. I saw Megon in concert last summer and became an immediate fan. She is a remarkable singer who brings humor and depth to every song she sings, and I was hooked within the first eight bars. She has performed everywhere from The Cellar Door to Carnegie Hall, and her work has been featured on stage in shows like Pump Boys and Dinettes and Always ... Patsy Cline, and on TV and in movies.

In Her Way, Megon highlights some of the most prolific and memorable female singers of the last sixty years including Cher, Dusty Springfield, Billie Holiday, Doris Day, Patsy Cline, Edith Piaf, Diana Ross, Joni Mitchell, Ella Fitzgerald, Lulu, Bonnie Raitt, and Janis Joplin. She intertwines jazz, pop, country, folk and rock with her wittiness and snappy patter for what is sure to be an unforgettable evening of entertainment.

But these aren't the only interesting gals that will be in town this summer. As we put Megon into the calendar, I realized how many remarkable women we have

Don't Let Summer Pass You By

By Nick Urhausen

Summer officially begins on June 21st, and yet some feel that the planting season is already over. The large chain retailers, hardware stores, and supermarkets have either picked-over left-overs or no plants left to buy. The experts who run these retail enterprises have determined that you don't need any more plants!

For many plants, both annual and perennial, the arrival of summer weather provides the growing conditions which allow plants to finally thrive. Tender annuals like coleus, non-stop begonias, and zinnias, perennials like ornamental grasses and hardy hibiscus, and vegetables and herbs like cucumbers and basil do not really grow well until both air and soil temperatures warm up. The rays from the sun are also strongest which help all plants and especially tropicals grow and thrive.

The beginning of summer also means that any plants you do plant now have the whole summer to grow. One can enjoy the beauty from their plants during July, August, and September—the summer months when people spend the most time outdoors. With the beautiful falls we have been experiencing the past few years, it is not difficult to keep your annuals looking good until Halloween. All you have to do is protect them from early frosts by covering the few nights when temperatures drop below freezing.

So if you haven't planted anything yet this season, or you just need a few fill-ins, then try visiting Urhausen Greenhouses this summer. We are still planting, growing, and maintaining fresh plants to meet your beautification needs. We will be open daily from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Don't let these summer months slip by, as we know winter will be back soon enough!

Urhausen Greenhouses is located at 6973 n. East Prairie Road in Lincolnwood. Their phone number 847-675-1573. www.urhausengreenhouses.com performing here just for us. These are talented women, of national and even international renown, and they're coming to our back yard.

On July 25, Ester Hana, 'Lady T' Marcelain and Yoko Noge team up for Chicago Women in Blues, Jazz and Popular Song. Don't let this unassuming title disguise what a gem this is. These women are all international sensations who have brought their talents to the states and the Chicago area.

Yoko Noge settled in Chicago in the 80's but still performs annually in Japan. Her music style is a fusion of American jazz and blues, mixed with Japanese folk and traditional music. Her original compositions find a commonality between African-rooted music and the music of Japan.

'Lady T' returned to Chicago in the late 1990s, after living and working in Europe, East-West-and-South Africa, Latin America and the former Soviet Union. She's known as "the American lady with a lot of jazz to give." She was the manager of a jazz club in Ghana, and originated the very first Jazz Festival in Zambia. She has also been promoting "Jazz Appreciation Month" on behalf of the Smithsonian Institution since the observance began in 2002. Lady T's performances are a mellow and intimate blend of music from the hottest years of America's vocal jazz, with some African and European influences.

Ester Hana is from Dalaguete, Cebu in central Philippines, and is an internationally known singer and pianist. Ester's musical career brought her to Chicago, after successful performances in Manila and Bangkok. She is a phenomenal talent, whose performances are a mixture of ethnic and popular music, in over a dozen languages, embodying her Filipino roots. She is amazingly versatile. Ester is also appearing with Carla Gordon, Jan Slavin and the Americana Ensemble of the Old Town School of Folk Music in Give a Hootenanny, a folk music sing-a-long for the entire family on July 20.

Let's not forget Caryn Bark and the Funny Old Broads. She's been seen nationally on Catch a Rising Star and Lifetime's Girl's Night Out, but the star of Diary of a Skokie Girl is still a local girl at heart, and bring the Funny Old Broads home on Thursday nights for six weeks starting July 10.

Finally, Vicki Quade and Nuns4Fun are also back on July 11 with Movie Bingo: Good, Bad, or Condemned?! People weren't sure what to expect from Vicki when she first performed in June. A bingo game? Is she a real nun? I'm not Catholic, will I find it funny? The answers, from back to front, are Yes, No, and Yes. 80% of our audience in June was lovingly teased for being "heathens," and they all laughed harder than the Catholics. And there is plenty of Catholic school humor to amuse those who've been. But no one is safe from former nun Mary Margaret O'Brien who insists on order, participation, and no faulty bingo calls. She gives away plenty of fun prizes. It's a show unlike any you've ever experienced and you have one night left.

Mention this article or use code GALS at checkout to save $5 off your tickets ($2 off for the Hootenanny). SkokieTheatre.org or call the box office at 847-677-7761. 7924 Lincoln Ave with plenty of free, public parking all around. It's hard to imagine a more interesting bunch of gals. Come meet them at the theatre.

Preparing for the Unthinkable

Chester M. Przybylo

Nobody thinks they will be in an auto accident, have a heart attack, have a stroke, or a myriad of other unexpected, sudden incidents. Those are events that happen to other, unfortunate people - not to us.

Yet, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, auto accidents injure over 2.5 million people in the United States each year. Over 42,000 of those accidents result in death.

In addition, according to the American Heart Association, over 80 million Americans have some form of cardiovascular disease, resulting in over 5 million incidents of stroke and 5 million incidents of heart failure each year.

Of course, these only happen to other people. That's about 13 million "other" people involved in strokes, heart failure, and traffic accidents each year.

What can we do? Of course we can do what we can to minimize the risk of these events. We can wear our seat belts, drive prudently, and follow our doctors' orders. But, the risk of the unexpected remains.

We can prepare now to make sure that things are taken care of in the way we want. That way, we will rest easy knowing that we've done everything we can and can focus on the process of recovering from the incident.

What's involved with getting everything taken care of? A Legacy Wealth Plan includes the necessary items to accomplish this:

- Health Care Power of Attorney / Health Care Directive: Appoints someone to make medical decisions for you and expresses your wishes regarding end of life decisions.

- Financial Power of Attorney: Appoints someone to make financial decisions for you.

- HIPAA Power: Allows designated individual to get your health information and allows them to visit you in the hospital.

- Family Wealth Trust: Provides for flexible disposition of your assets the way you want and avoiding probate.

- Last Will: Appoints guardians for any minor children and moves any forgotten items into the Trust.

A qualified Legacy Wealth Planner can help you set forth what is really important to you, to handle not just your financial assets, but the wealth of experiences and wisdom you've built over a lifetime. With the Legacy Wealth Plan in place, if some unthinkable event should happen, you and your family can rest assured that everything's taken care of and you can go about the process of recovering.

12th Annual After Supper Visions Exhibit Raises $10,000 for Catholic Charities Supper Guests

Program gives a voice and vision to those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness; Exhibit featured 60 artists

The 12th Annual Catholic Charities After Supper Visions photography exhibit on June 6 and 7 raised more than $10,000 to support the photography artists. The photographers who displayed their artwork can't be found in the pages of magazines or on the walls of art museums - they are not professionals. They are guests of the Catholic Charities supper program. Many of the photographers are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Most had never picked up a camera before, but their photographs provide an opportunity to see Chicago from a different point of view - their point of view.

The annual exhibit, set up like an art gallery at Catholic Charities headquarters in the River North neighborhood, was just one opportunity the public had to support the artists and see photography unlike any other in Chicago. Prints and notecards are always available for purchase on the program's website at www.aftersuppervisions.com. The artists use the profits to help with security deposits for apartments, paying utility bills, buying food or purchasing digital cameras to encourage their new passion.

"Catholic Charities and this program have given me a purpose and I am grateful for that," said Amie Davis, an artist and participant in the After Supper Visions program. "I want people to remember that when they buy a print from us they aren't just buying a nice photo, they may be helping someone pay a bill or buy food or take care of themselves. It is more than just artwork."

The After Supper Visions program was founded 12 years ago by staff at Catholic Charities and volunteers who served dinner to the guests at the Tuesday evening supper program. Supper guests are given a disposable camera and encouraged to photograph the city from their point of view. Volunteers develop the photographs and the artists choose the best three to four photos to display at the exhibit.

"We want to give our supper guests an opportunity to share their perspective," said Monsignor Michael M. Boland, President of Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago. "The After Supper Visions program has given more than 200 artists an opportunity to express themselves through photography. To date more than 23,000 photos have been taken, and $110,000 has been raised to help our guests become more self-sufficient."

To learn more about the artists or to purchase prints and notecards, visit aftersuppervisions.com.

Summer Events and Festivals Mean Fun in RTA Region

RTA Trip Planner Offers Easy Way to Plan Routes; Avoid Traffic Jams on the Way to "Jam"

The Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) is continuing to remind riders that the fastest and most convenient way to get around this summer is by taking transit. The fun is just a short ride away on a bus or train and a great way to avoid the second weekend of construction delays along the Kennedy Expressway and other congested areas in the region.

Choices include:

- Escape the hustle and bustle of the city and hop on Metra's North Central Service Line at Union Station to Long Grove for the Strawberry Festival (June 20) to immerse yourself in the scenery of a small historic town while taking in some great food and entertainment.

- Take Metra's Burlington Santa Fe line into Union Station from the western suburbs and make your way to the Gold Coast Art Fair at Grant Park (June 21-22). Enjoy incredible demonstrations by artists, live music, and interactive art projects.

- The annual Swedish Days fest (June 20-22) in downtown Geneva will be filled with live music, a parade, a carnival, food vendors and kids games. Jump on the Metra Union Pacific/West Line at the Ogilvie Transportation Center.

"Our transit system is the best way to reach your favorite destinations, whether it's planning a mid-week visit to the museum, enjoying a night out for dinner or participating with hundreds of concert goers at one of the many free performances held at Chicago's Grant Park," said Acting RTA Executive Director Leanne Redden.

Riders can use the RTA's Trip Planner to plan travel and select routes with handicap accessible services when necessary. It is the only online site in the region that provides a variety of options for getting around our region, including transit, walking, bicycling and driving. For more information about how the RTA Trip Planner can help you plan your next trip, visit www.RTAchicago.org. Not sure where to go? Visit websites like Metromix (<http://chicago.metromix.com>) and Choose Chicago (<http://www.choosechicago.com/articles/view/CHICAGO-EVENTS-FESTIVALS-2014-CALENDAR-HIGHLIGHTS/1243/#June>), for a full listing of summer events in the Chicago region.

International Youth Soccer Teams to Join Chicago's KICS Cup Tournament in July!

Over 10 international teams committed to the Chicago KICS Cup International Youth Soccer Tournament that will take place July 19 - July 26.

The Chicago KICS Cup is looking forward to hosting local, national and international teams this July and providing an experience of a lifetime for the players, their family and friends. In recent months, the tournament has received commitments from multiple youth soccer teams including over 10 international teams. The support of the public as well as community organizations has helped the KICS Cup organization reach many of the teams that have registered for the tournament.

The most recent committed team is from Collegio Gallio (Gallio School) in Como, Italy. The KICS Cup organizers worked with the Milan Committee of Chicago Sister Cities to invite this team to be a part of this international event that will take place in one of the world's renowned metropolitan areas, Chicago.

In addition, the partnership with another global organization, love.fútbol, lead to the invitation and participation of two teams from Guatemala. These teams competed for the chance to participate and travel to the KICS Cup in which they will proudly represent their localities and country. The organization love.fútbol is a non-profit organization that creates community soccer fields that act as catalysts for sustainable social change. In collaboration with the KICS Cup, both organizations hope to raise donations to provide soccer shoes for the participating players.

"As one of the main sponsors and supporters of the event, Chirch Global Manufacturing is excited to be a part of an international event of this magnitude," said CEO Anthony Chirchirillo. "We hope that the Chicagoland community comes together to help and support such a great cause and event that will be host to local and national teams, as well as guests from Guatemala, Italy, Ghana, Puerto Rico and Ukraine, among others."

For more information on how to support the teams and the KICS Cup, please visit www.KICSCup.com. The KICS Cup has set up a crowd funding site to help teams with donations at <http://www.gofundme.com/7ofdt0>.

Village Cooking Corner

From the Kitchen of Anastasia E. Weaver

This is one of my favorite go to recipes for summer eating whether I am entertaining a small group or having dinner with my husband. It is a side dish whether the main course is vegetarian, chicken, fish or hamburgers on the grill This is a great potato salad for a picnic side also. It is delicious served warm or cold or the next day.

Greek Potato Salad

4 Large Potatoes – I usually use Russet but Yukon Gold work well also
1 small onion in circles – my preference is Vidalia Sweet Onions or a Red Onion (both work well)
4 green onions washed and chopped in small pieces
2 tsps Fresh Parsley

For the Dressing

1/3 cup of Olive Oil
1/3 cup Juice of Lemon
1tbsp of Dried and crushed Oregano
Salt and Pepper to taste

This is a serving for 4 and the approximate preparation and cooking time is about 45 minutes. Wash the potatoes well and boil in enough water to cover the potatoes.. Cook until softened. You will want to check periodically to make sure they are soft but not melted down. Drain the potatoes and permit to cool so that they will be easily handled while peeling them. Cut the potatoes in small cubes and place in a bowl. Combine the onion as well as the green onion and the parsley with the potatoes. Note: you may substitute fresh dill or fresh mint for the parsley, depending on your preference. I often substitute dill for parsley. Beat the dressing ingredients together and mix gently into the potato/onion mixture. Permit to sit for an hour or two prior to serving so that the seasonings permeate the potatoes. Serve on a platter or in a bowl.
