Columbus Day Observance, Oct. 14th

Columbus Day first became an official state holiday in Colorado in 1906, and became a federal holiday in 1937. However, people have celebrated Columbus's voyage since the colonial period. During the four hundredth anniversary, in 1892, teachers, preachers, poets and politicians used Columbus Day rituals to teach ideals of patriotism. The first official, regular Columbus Day holiday was proclaimed by Colorado governor Jesse F. McDonald in 1905 and made a statutory holiday in 1907. In April 1934, as a result of lobbying by the Knights of Columbus, Congress and President Franklin Delano Roosevelt made October 12 a federal holiday under the name Columbus Day.

Edison Park Comedy Fest

Yes I Am Show Business in conjunction with the Edison Park Chamber of Commerce is proud to present the fifth annual Edison Park Comedy Festival beginning Thursday October 17th and running through Saturday the 19th. The fest will feature some of the funniest stand-up comedians in the country who will be performing at three venues in Edison Park. Each show will consist of a different line-up hand picked from some of the nations best!

The fest is set to kick off at Firewater Saloon (6689 N. Oliphant Ave) on Thursday the 17th at 8pm where the festival's producers Joe Kilgallon & Tony Valle host their favorite Chicago comics!

Friday night the comedy moves around the corner to Edison Park Inn (6715 N. Olmsted, Chicago) at 8pm where Diaz Mackie (Las Vegas) headlines a solid line-up. The son of a hustling father and a preaching mother, this young man was poised to leave his mark. Growing up in Michigan during the mid-80's & 90's has shaped & molded a comedic star on the rise and has given his comedy a fresh and upbeat rhythm. Diaz Mackie "The Golden Child" in just a short time has made two TV appearances "Audacity Ent." shown on UPN and "Smooth Vegas Nights" show on Vegas TV as well as a finalist in season two's Def Comedy Jam auditions.

From there the festival the fest heads around the corner to The Emerald Isle (6686 N. Northwest Hwy) on the 19th. The show will star neighborhood favorite Joe Kilgallon, a member of the "Comedian's You Should Know" and is a regular at the Chicago Improv. Joe has also performed in the TBS Just for Laughs Festival and has appeared on NBC Sports.

The showroom doors will open a half our before showtime and all 3 venues include a full bar and kitchen. Show's will run ON-TIME so please be prompt!

The accreditation award recognizes the medical center's dedication to continuous compliance with The Joint Commission's state-of-the-art standards.

"In achieving Joint Commission accreditation, Presence Our Lady of the Resurrection Medical Center has demonstrated its commitment to the highest level of care for its patients," says Mark G. Pelletier, R.N., M.S., Chief Operating Officer, Division of Accreditation and Certification Operations, The Joint Commission. "Accreditation is a voluntary process and I commend Presence Our Lady of the Resurrection Medical Center for successfully undertaking this challenge to elevate its standard of care and instill confidence in the community it serves."

"Achieving Joint Commission accreditation, for our organization, is a major step toward maintaining excellence and continually improving the care we provide."

It's that Spooktacular time of the year when all Halloween Festivities are beginning. It seems that with each coming year more and more people are having a bewitching time celebrating Halloween with gory parties, dressing up, and haunting their homes both inside and out.

At the Antique Resale Shoppe, ghosts and goblins of all ages come in for tricks, treats, and vintage clothes to make their costumes a bit more unique. There are plenty of "dress-up" items from hats, gloves, eyeglasses to beaded sweaters, circle skirts, and army fatigues. And we can't forget the tons and tons of jewelry and accessories that can make a costume bootiful. Suzanna and Jules enjoy looking into their crystal ball for costume advice.

When you ride your broom over don't forget to say, Boo!

Don't Trust Your Legacy to Just Anyone

Chester M. Przybylo

Protecting our families and our assets after we are gone is an essential part of life. However, in planning our estates, we need to take into account the many potential life changes that may come up for our surviving family members and ensure that we have various protections built into our estate plan.

For example, it's no secret that the divorce rate in this country is high and a significant percentage of Americans have been divorced several times. Additionally, in 2008 Americans filed more than 100,000 lawsuits, and the number is expected to increase dramatically because of the downturn in the economy. These statistics should concern all of us, but especially those people who are planning, or failing to plan, their estates. These are very real and potential dangers that may come up for you or your surviving family members, and which can be managed with an effective estate plan.

However, not all estate plans are created equal. There are many Wills and Living Trusts available that are designed to be one-size fits all, and which leave out many important provisions that are intended to protect your family and assets from the very real world concerns that affect many Americans.

Therefore, the most important part of your estate plan is not the documents. It is the knowledge used by the attorney who creates your plan. How do you know if someone has the necessary knowledge? Be sure to check the background of the attorney you hire and make sure that they meet the following criteria:

- Experienced. Only an experienced professional has seen what works and what does not work. You do not want to be someone's guinea pig.
 - Licensed. Many people purport to provide estate planning services, from annuity salespeople to paralegals. Estate planning involves complex legal issues which require a licensed attorney.
 - Focused. Licensed attorneys practice in areas from antitrust law to water rights law, and everything in between. An attorney who is focused in estate planning has the background, ability, and demonstrated commitment helping people with developing and implementing their estate plans.
- The right attorney has the experience to avoid imprecision in the drafting of your documents. In addition to exposing your family and assets to the dangers of divorce and lawsuits, imprecision in documents can lead to family disputes which can wreak havoc on their emotional and financial well being. Further, an experienced, licensed, and focused attorney has the skills necessary to craft an estate plan that not only meets your goals, but also provides:
- Remarriage Protection. If your surviving spouse remarries, it protects and passes your assets and your legacy to your children, instead of the new spouse.
 - Divorce Protection. It protects your children's inheritance in case of their own divorce, ensuring that up to 50% does not just walk away with your future ex in-law.
 - Creditor Protection. It protects your children's inheritance from the ravages of potential lawsuits and creditor claims, in case your children become the target of litigation.
 - Tax Savings. It provides the framework and flexibility to maximize savings on a range of taxes, including federal and state income taxes, local property taxes, and federal and state estate, gift, and inheritance taxes.
 - Tailored Solution. It is a plan that is tailored to take advantage of the laws of your state to best achieve your individual goals.

Your legacy and your family are the most important elements in your life. Protect them from the perilous times we live in and from untrained, inexperienced, or even unscrupulous "planners."

-Chester M. Przybylo has been elected to the Board of Governors of the prestigious American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys and has been engaged in the practice of law for the last 40 years. Thank You For Helping Us Make This Year's Oktoberfest At St. Peter School in Skokie A Great Success

St. Peter School hosted its annual Oktoberfest on September 20-22. The school parking lot was transformed into a fabulous beer garden and carnival. Entertainers thrilled the crowds on each evening: The Spirit of Memphis impersonators, The Blues Brothers and Traditional German by Frank K. The St. Peter Parish and School Communities as well as our wonderful Skokie neighbors celebrated and helped to raise funds for our school programs. We are so fortunate to enjoy the support of so many people who helped to make the night a great success. Our neighboring businesses also played a part by donating items, buying ads in our book and providing needed supplies at reduced rates – many thanks to all of them!

In addition to the Oktoberfest party, a cash raffle also took place. Each school family sold tickets for the raffle as part of their fundraising contribution. Three winners were drawn at the end of Sunday's celebration and prizes of $7500, $2000, and $1000 were given. Congratulations to our winners!

If you would like to learn more about St. Peter School and the wonderful learning community, please contact the school office at 847-673-0918.
