CITY COUNCIL APPROVES OVER $1 MILLION IN FUNDING ALLOWING NEXT STEP IN ALBANY PARK STORMWATER DIVERSION TUNNEL PROJECT

City Council today approved $1.17 million in funds enabling an extensive tunnel project in Albany Park to move forward. The Albany Park Stormwater Diversion Tunnel, a below-ground construction effort will dramatically reduce the potential for flooding on the city's northwest side.

"From the time I was a Congressman to my time as Mayor, I have seen the Albany Park community deal with great uncertainty as a result of extreme storms," said Mayor Emanuel. "The construction of this tunnel will dramatically reduce flooding in this community and ensure that our residents and businesses don't need to worry about dealing with storm damage and its consequences. This is an innovative project that will bring much needed relief to the community."

The proposed tunnel-design would be an 18-foot diameter diversion tunnel which would divert the excess flow from a storm through an underground tunnel, bypassing the Albany Park neighborhood. The stormwater would flow into the North Shore Channel. The tunnel would extend east under Foster Avenue for a distance of about one mile, from Eugene Park to the North Shore Channel. During normal weather conditions, the River would flow as it normally does.

The tunnel is a joint project between the City of Chicago and the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District (MWRD), and is expected to cost between $45 and $55 million. The final determination of cost will be made at the conclusion of the design phase. The City of Chicago and the MWRD have already committed a total of $40 million to the project.

The North Branch of the Chicago River drains into the North Shore Channel at the east end of the Albany Park neighborhood. Albany Park is a low-lying neighborhood that is especially prone to flooding, and faced severe flooding this summer and in September of 2008.

AUTOMATED SPEED ENFORCEMENT CAMERAS TO ISSUE TICKETS IN CHILDREN'S SAFETY ZONES NEAR LEGION AND WELLES PARKS

New Cameras to Issue Warnings Near Jefferson Park and Harvard Elementary

Speeding tickets will begin to be issued this week from Automated Speed Enforcement (ASE) cameras in the Children's Safety Zones near Legion Park and Welles Park, while the 30-day warning period will begin for the new cameras near Jefferson Park and John Harvard Elementary School of Excellence.

On Friday, February 14th, newly installed ASE cameras near Jefferson Park, at 5471 W Higgins Ave. and 5432 W. Lawrence Ave., and near Harvard Elementary, at 7518 S. Vincennes Ave., will begin to issue warnings to motorists. Tickets will be issued from these cameras on March 30th.

On Sunday, February 16th, the ASE camera near Legion Park at 3137 W. Peterson Ave. will begin to issue tickets.

On Monday, February 17th, the ASE cameras around Welles Park are located at 4433 & 4436 N. Western Ave. and 4432 N. Lincoln Ave. will also begin to issue tickets.

In most locations, one camera system can enforce the speed limit for traffic traveling in both directions. In the Welles zone, Western Avenue is too wide to rely on one system, necessitating two cameras to accurately enforce traffic traveling in both directions.

The City will start enforcement by only issuing tickets for speeders going 10 or more miles per hour over the posted speed limit. That ticket threshold will gradually be lowered going forward.

Fines for violations are $35 for vehicles traveling 6-10 miles per hour over the posted speed limit while in a safety zone, and $100 for vehicles traveling 11 or more miles over the posted speed limit.

The City plans to equip Children's Safety Zones around parks and schools with ASE cameras in an effort to increase safety and reduce speeding. Any revenue generated by the program is to be invested in critical safety initiatives including after-school, anti-violence and jobs programs; crossing guards and police officers around schools; and infrastructure improvements, such as additional signs, cross-walk markings and other traffic safety improvements.

The Children's Safety Zones are designated within 1/8th of a mile from Chicago parks or schools. The City ordinance establishing the program narrows the hours and locations of enforcement that are allowed under state law, and provides for the following:

- The enforcement hours will be limited from 7 am to 7 pm in safety zones around schools on school days (Monday through Friday); 7 am to 4 pm: 20 mph speed limit when children are present; 30 mph speed limit when no children are present 4 pm to 7 pm: 30 mph speed limit
- The enforcement hours around parks will be limited to only those hours parks are open (typically 6am to 11pm, 7 days a week) with a 30 mph speed limit.

Snow Removal -IT'S THE LAW!!!

All businesses/commercial properties in the City of Chicago are required to shovel all snow and ice from sidewalks in front and along the sides of the building. (Chicago municipal code sections 4-4-310 and 10-8-180) Those businesses who do not follow this are subject to fines ranging to $250-$1000 per day) Snow and ice present challenges to safe and comfortable walking in the winter. We understand that it has been a LONG winter, but we've noticed that several businesses have not yet shoveled from the last snow event. Once again - it is the LAW! We will be doing our part by reporting businesses that do not comply. It is shown that businesses that do not shovel experience slower sales and less repeat business. Please shovel your sidewalks and show customers and pedestrians that you care!

Chicago Shovels Website

Chicago Shovels is a tool to help connect the public with City winter resources and empower neighbors to come together to help Chicago navigate winter. There are tools to track snow plows, volunteer to assist the elderly with snow removal, adopt a sidewalk and access to City resources such as 311. Visit Chicago Shovels at www.cityofchicago.org/city/en/depts/mayor/snowportal/chicagoshovels.html!

James A. Pawelczyk Biography

James A. (Jim) Pawelczyk received Bachelor of Arts Degrees in Biology and Psychology from the University of Rochester in 1982, a Masters of Science in Physiology from Penn State University in 1985, and a Ph.D. in Biology (Physiology) from the University of North Texas in 1989. He completed a post-doctoral fellowship at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas in 1992, then joined the faculty as an Assistant Professor of Cardiology and Bioengineering. In that capacity he served as the Director of the Autonomic and Exercise Physiology Laboratories and a founding member of the Institute for Exercise and Environmental Medicine, a clinical research collaboration between UT Southwestern and Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas. In 1995 he joined the faculty of the Pennsylvania State University where he is now an Associate Professor of Physiology, Kinesiology and Medicine.

Dr. Pawelczyk's research focuses on the dynamic regulation of blood pressure, and how disuse atrophy affects blood pressure regulation. Problems with moment-to-moment regulation of blood pressure lead to orthostatic intolerance, an inability to maintain adequate blood flow to the brain that affects as many as 500,000 Americans. The condition is routinely observed following spaceflight, which Dr. Pawelczyk has studied as a NASA funded investigator for the past six years. In 1995 he was selected as a Payload Specialist for the Neurolab space shuttle mission, and flew aboard STS-90 on the space shuttle Columbia in April and May of 1998. He logged 16 days and 6.4 million miles in space, circling the earth 256 times and conducting neuroscience experiments that addressed changes in the development of the nervous system, balance, blood pressure regulation, sleep, and control movement during spaceflight.

Dr. Pawelczyk assists the formation of U.S. space life sciences strategy. He has testified before the United States Senate Subcommittee on Science and Space, and is an active member of the National Research Council's Space Studies Board and the Institute of Medicine's Committee on Aerospace Medicine and Extreme Environments. Both are part of the National Academies, chartered by Congress to address critical national issues and give advice to the federal government and the public.

MAYOR EMANUEL ADDS MORE POTHOLE CREWS TO INCREASE STREET REPAIRS AFTER HISTORIC WINTER

Mayor Rahm Emanuel today announced the Chicago Department of Transportation (CDOT) is adding six more pothole crews capable of filling an additional 1,500 potholes a day as the city tackles the large amount of depressions that have surfaced during this historically cold and snowy winter.

The new crews will come from the ranks of seasonal asphalt workers, who normally work for CDOT during the summer months on street repaving projects, and they will be on the job by March 1.

With the additional labor, CDOT will have nearly 30 pothole crews on the street at one time, including double the amount of crews that currently work weekends. The extra crews will fill approximately 25,000 more holes next month, and CDOT is expected to fill more than 165,000 potholes in that time.

"CDOT works to ensure our roadways are safe, and this includes repairing the many potholes that have formed during this tough winter season," said Mayor Rahm Emanuel. "City workers have done a tremendous job making repairs in all neighborhoods to keep Chicago moving, but the extreme cold and historic snow totals have made it necessary to add workers."

CDOT pothole crews are on the street seven days a week to address potholes in streets and alleys across Chicago. Since the beginning of the year, crews have already repaired more than 175,000 potholes, using more than 3,500 tons of patching material.

Last year, CDOT crews repaired more than 625,000 potholes in streets and alleys across Chicago and are ahead of that pace in 2014. This year, CDOT has been filling an average of nearly 250 potholes per crew per day.

Chicagoans can track the fight against potholes and see a week's worth of CDOT's work on the City's Pothole Tracker application (www.cityofchicago.org/potholetracker), which shows not only the calls for service but the number of potholes filled during each site visit.

Mayor Emanuel also announced this week that the City intends to repave 300 miles of city streets this summer, which will help to improve the overall quality of the streets and reduce the number of potholes we may see next winter.

Chicagoans can report potholes in a number of ways, including:

- Calling 311
- Using the City's website at www.cityofchicago.org/311 or various Open 311 smartphone apps including: SeeClickFix and Chicago Works. For more web and smartphone civic apps, visit Chicago Digital.
- Using ChiText by texting "Chicago" to 311311 to start the reporting process

Jefferson Park Neighborhood Association

The JPNA, Jefferson Park Neighborhood Association, at its next monthly meeting, Wed., March 26, at 7:00 p.m. on the lower level of the Congregational Church of Jefferson Park, will hold a Mini Health Fair. The Fair will be run by the local Walgreens and a new Medicare Center on Irving Park Road. Blood pressure readings will be given to those who wish and there will be some type of hand out. All meetings are open to the public, free, with light refreshments. For more information call 772 282 3879.

Spring Forward and Test Your Batteries

The Skokie Fire Department reminds residents to check and change batteries once a year in all smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and all emergency accessory kits to make sure they are in working condition. Be sure to replace smoke alarms every 10 years for optimal effectiveness and follow the manufacturer's recommendation regarding carbon monoxide detector replacement, as all models vary.

Additionally, all Illinois homeowners and landlords must have carbon monoxide detectors in buildings containing bedrooms and sleeping facilities. All residential units are required to have at least one carbon monoxide alarm within 15 feet of every room used for sleeping purposes.

For more information about smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, contact the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Skokie Fire Department at 847/982-5340.

Historical Society to Host: Beth Botts – Behind Springtime

Come join us March 26th at 7:00PM for our next members meeting! Beth Botts will be joining us to discuss "Behind Springtime: What's Going on as the Garden Comes Alive". Ms. Botts will help us understand more about how our plants, our soil and the weather all interact to make it through winter and explode into spring. This program has a few how-to's, and a lot about understanding the processes that are at work in spring. Beth Botts has written hundreds of articles about gardens and nature for publications including the Chicago Tribune, Organic Gardening, Country Gardens and Chicagoland Gardening among many others. Raised on the South Side of Chicago by an organic gardener, she now gardens in the deep shade on the north side of a four-story apartment building. She crowds her roses into one small bed where the sun sneaks between the trees, and grows tomatoes and herbs on a third-floor porch. A Master Gardener and an Openlands TreeKeeper, Ms. Botts is a lover not only of gardens but of trees, woods, dunes and wetlands and has been involved in conservation and environmental issues all her life. Formerly a longtime editor and reporter for newspapers including the Chicago Tribune, Ms. Botts now is a senior writer at The Morton Arboretum in Lisle, Illinois. Her website is thegardenbeat.com.

This will be a free program that will be interesting to everyone. Hope to see you all there! Happy Gardening! For more information please contact 773-631-4633 and leave a message for Judy Rustemeyer.

The Norwood Park Historical Society, a not-for-profit organization, resides in the Noble-Seymour-Crippen House, Chicago's oldest home. The Society works with the community to preserve its rich history and architectural integrity and to make the dreams and experiences of our predecessors come to life. Visits are available on Saturdays, from noon to 4 p.m., or by appointment.

JUDGE TONY KYRIAKOPOULOS RECEIVES KEY ENDORSEMENTS AND HIGHEST CHICAGO BAR ASSOCIATION RATING IN RACE FOR 10TH SUBCIRCUIT

The Cook County Democratic Party has endorsed Judge Tony Kyriakopoulos in his first election campaign since the Illinois Supreme Court appointed him to the bench in 2010. Also expressing support for the candidate are the Chicago Federation of Labor, the Illinois Fraternal Order of Police Labor Council, the Fraternal Order of Police Chicago Lodge 7, the Chicago Firefighter Union Local 2, the Chicago Regional Council of Carpenters, and the Indo-American Democratic Organization.

With over four years of experience as a sitting judge, bar associations were able to evaluate Judge Kyriakopoulos very thoroughly and his ratings reflect the respect he has earned while serving in the courtroom. The Chicago Bar Association gave Judge Kyriakopoulos its very highest rating of "Highly Qualified," the only candidate in the race for the 10th Subcircuit to receive such a high rating.

In his endorsement of Judge Kyriakopoulos, Illinois State Senator John G. Mulroe stated, "I've known Tony for 20 years, first as a prosecutor and now as a judge, and he is exactly the kind of judge we need. He is well-respected in the legal community, for his high level of integrity and for being even tempered, intelligent, and administering justice impartially."

A longtime resident of the Tenth Judicial Subcircuit, Judge Tony Kyriakopoulos has served the public for 24 years as both an Assistant Cook County State's Attorney and as a judge. He was appointed a full Circuit Cook County Judge of the Tenth Judicial Subcircuit on February 2, 2010. He presides over 6,400 foreclosure cases each year and has gained a reputation for being compassionate, fair, and for understanding the critical role the courts play in one of the most far-reaching financial crises of our time. Judge Kyriakopoulos is a graduate of Lane Tech High School, the University of Illinois at Chicago, and The John Marshall Law School. He lives with his wife and two children in the same neighborhood in which he grew up.

For more information on Judge Tony Kyriakopoulos, view the website at www.judgetony.com.

The Lincolnwood Police Department Urges Motorists to Safely Celebrate on St. Patrick's Day

Law Enforcement Plans "Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over Crackdown" on Drunk Drivers

The Lincolnwood Police Department has announced that they will be conducting special patrols this St. Patrick's Day to crack down on drunk drivers and unbuckled motorists. "We want to inform all drivers of our efforts to keep the community safe through our participation in grant programs; 'Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over and Click It or Ticket'," said Sgt. Michael Cahill. "If you plan on drinking alcohol, we advise that you designate a sober driver before the party begins. Be responsible and be safe or be jailed."

"St. Patrick's Day can be a deadly and dangerous day on our roadways because of drunk driving. Starting March 13 through March 17, we will be working overtime to catch and arrest drunk drivers," said Sgt. Cahill. In addition, the Lincolnwood Police Department will be stepping up seat belt enforcement particularly at night when seat belt usage rates are lowest.

Designating a sober driver and not letting friends drive drunk are two simple steps to help avoid tragedy or an arrest for drunk driving. If you are hosting a St. Patrick's Day party, you can be held liable and/or prosecuted if someone you serve is involved in a drunk driving crash. The "Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over Crackdown" is funded by federal traffic safety funds granted from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and administered through the Illinois Department of Transportation - Division of Traffic Safety.

RESURRECTION CELTIC CLUB SUPPORT MERCY HOME AT NORTHWEST SIDE IRISH PARADE

As St. Patrick's 2014 Day approaches, the Resurrection Celtic Club has been planning their participation with the Mercy Home for Boys and Girls "March for Kids" (formerly known as "Shamrocks for Kids") as volunteers working with Mercy Home at the Northwest Side Irish Parade on Saturday, March 16, 2014. Mercy Home for Boys & Girls is a children's charity dedicated to providing a solution for at-risk children in Chicago. Resurrection Celtic Club and Key Club members will be volunteering their time, as they have in previous years, to collect donations for Mercy Home at the parade. Each donor receives a shamrock to wear in support of the children and teens living in crisis in the Chicago area. Funds donated as part of the "March for Kids" campaign make it possible for Mercy Home for Boys and Girls to continue to provide a safe home, therapeutic support and access to a good education for kids in need.

At a recent Resurrection Celtic Club meeting on Tuesday, February 11, 2014 the "March for Kids" coordinator at Mercy Home, Suzanna Houtsma, spoke to Celtic Club members about the history of Mercy Home for Boys and Girls and the ongoing work done by the organization. Funds that support Mercy Home are raised by donors, individuals and local foundations and the "March for Kids" campaign is an important part of raising support and awareness. The Resurrection Celtic Club will also be accepting donations and distributing shamrocks in support of Mercy Home during its upcoming March 14th bake sale.

How Do Millionaires Do It?

Chester M. Przybylo

Statistics show that there are more millionaires than ever—that is American households with assets over $1 million, excluding their homes. Dr. Larry Samuel of the consulting group Culture Planning breaks them down into five basic groups:

- Thrillionaires. These millionaires live on the edge, consuming conspicuously. They're more likely to be found rolling the dice in Las Vegas than taking a family vacation. While they're not impulsive, they take calculated risks. Think: Donald Trump.
- Coolionaires. These millionaires live in the cultural centers and support fine art, architecture, and other expressions of creativity. They probably acquired their wealth through a combination of innate talent and an extraordinary amount of hard work. Think: Steve Jobs, founder of Apple Computer.

- Realionaires. These unassuming millionaires live ordinary lives. They do not like to spend money unnecessarily. However, they do spend money on their priorities, like education. These millionaires may be the "Millionaire Next Door" as described in the book by Drs. Stanley and Danko a few years back. They are hard working and down to earth. Think: Warren Buffet.
- Wellionaires. They value their spiritual, mental, and physical health. They are open to new ideas and methods, which may be how they acquired their wealth. Think: Mark Hughes, founder of Herbal Life.
- Willionaires. Their wealth is often inherited and they view it as a sacred trust. They view their wealth as a responsibility to better their environment. These are the philanthropists. Think: David Rockefeller.

While these millionaires vary considerably from one another, they all have one thing in common: planning. It has been said that those who fail to plan, plan to fail. Whether you are a millionaire or aspire to be one, planning is the way to achieve your financial and life goals.

As with most endeavors, planning is essential when it comes to deciding what should happen when you are gone and how to deal with that eventuality. Will the kids be taken care of? What if my spouse remarries? Will I pay too much in taxes or expenses? What if my family fights over my estate? If you start now, you can make that eventual transition smoother and less traumatic emotionally and financially for you and your family.

A qualified estate planning attorney can help you set up a plan that will put your mind at ease. Taking care of matters now can avoid big messes down the road when you are incapacitated or after your death. You will know that things are taken care of and you can concentrate on more important things, like creating memories with your family.

Chester M. Przybylo has been elected to the Board of Governors of the prestigious American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys and has been engaged in the practice of law for the last 40 years. To register for an upcoming seminar, call the 24 hour reservation hotline at 1-800-638-7878 or register online at www.PlanOurEstate.com.
